MISSIONARIES TO

Oct-Dec 2017

Dear Praying Friends,

Institute

Last month (September) I was able to take a trip back to Uganda to teach a one-week Bible school class. I traveled with two pastors and a friend from Michigan. We covered two topics, Romans and Eschatology. It was a joy to see the people being faithful and the ministry continuing, not only in Gulu but also in the village churches.

While in Uganda, we were able to buy a bicycle for Bosco, one of the village pastors. This bicycle will help in the ministry at his church in Aruu Falls, and it will also help him in starting a church in a nearby village.

Health

We praise the Lord that I am completely recovered from the appendectomy I had on May 18, the first full day we'd spent in the States on furlough, and we're so thankful for the Lord's working in Andrew's life through the operation he had to repair two cut tendons in his finger on May 28.

One of our big concerns was the rehab we knew that Andrew would need to go through as we traveled. We're thankful that the doctor agreed to send Andrew with a suture removal kit and a set of instructions for the first stages of rehab so that we could continue our traveling as planned. As we traveled, each week we added a few more exercises to Andrew's program, and Sara was able to successfully remove Andrew's stitches on the road by herself. Also, we were planning to see Andrew's doctor upon our return to Michigan, but he called to cancel that appointment. Although initially we felt that put us in a bind, God led us to another Christian doctor who led us through the final stages of rehab late in the summer, all free of charge. Now it's fall time and Andrew has regained full movement and strength in that finger once again.

Robbery

Several weeks after we returned to America, we received news that thieves had broken into our house in Uganda. They took many items including sheets, tools, and kitchen things. They even tried to take the microwave, but it wouldn't fit through the bars they had bent in Susanna's window. We will need to replace many items before returning to Uganda in March, and most likely, we will discover many other things that were indeed taken as we move back in again.

Prayer

- Our children as they attend our home church's school, Woodcrest Baptist Academy, this fall.
- Safety as I travel many miles to visit churches.
- The working of the Holy Spirit through the different meetings and missions conferences we are involved with this fall.
- Patrick and Dennis as they lead the ministry in our absence.
- Preparation for our return to Uganda.
- The Lord's direction and provision for getting the radio station going this next year.

Yours for Uganda,

Nate L. Wright
