Greetings in Jesus' Name!

I trust that your new year started out good and has continued to be even better as 2015 rolls on. Keep looking up because Jesus said: "... I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

Attendance to our church services is really good. Visitation has brought forth fruit, professions of faith in the Lord Jesus. Our Bible studies are really helping our folk in their knowledge of the Word of God and we are seeing the results in their lives and witnessing for the Lord Jesus. Papi Juan (the oldest man in our church, 76yrs) is not doing well.

We have a grandson (Timothy's oldest son, Simon) graduating this year from high school and he's looking forward to start college next fall here in Mexico. He'll need a car by next fall but we are not in the position to help but if God would touch someone to help with this need, he and we will be very much appreciative. Next year we'll have another grandson (Timothy's second oldest son, Samuel) graduating from high school and he also will go to college here in Mexico.

Our oldest son (Tony) will have his right leg amputated below the knee. He broke his ankle several months back and it is not healing. The doctor has recommended the amputation because it will not heal. As you talk to Jesus, please mention my son to Him.

I'm needing six-one piece-16" (inch) dual rims/wheels for a Ford truck. My 1973 Ford truck has 16.5' split rims and they are rusted out to the point that they will not stay together. If anyone can help me with rims I would be one very happy man! My ole Ford truck has been my work truck for over 30yrs here in Mexico and she is still going.

I had a transmission go out in one of our Mexican vehicles. It cost $1,332.00 to re-build, of which I received $650.00 toward the re-build. At times it gets somewhat stressful, it sorta checks out my faith/trust in the Lord Jesus. The Lord is always faithful, no question about that! It's this guy (me) that needs to exercise more faith in HIM!

Even with the difficulties and problems, it is a blessed privilege to be allowed to serve our wonderful Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. And after all is said and done, we get to spend eternity with Him. What more could we ask for?

Thank you for your faithful financial and prayerful support to and for us. Through you, we are able to continually serve the Lord in Mexico.
