Dear Pastor & Wonderful Praying Friends,

July-August 2015

Deputation

We thank you for your prayers and support as they are a great encouragement to us and allow us to continue physically and spiritually on the deputation journey. These last months seemed to have flown by as we have been traveling and been in several different churches. Sometimes it seems like things slow down during the Summer months, but by God's grace we have been able to stay busy on the road. Its hard to believe that we have been on deputation full-time for fourteen months now. The Lord has been extremely kind and merciful toward us as we've traveled over 50,000 miles on deputation so far. We've seen many prayers answered and our support increased with four new supporting churches. Amen! We are praising the Lord that we are now at 52% and our departure date seems to be more within grasp.

We've not traveled far from home this month as we've been traveling in Tennessee, North Carolina and South Carolina. We even had one Sunday where we were able to have lunch at our house before the evening service (We couldn't remember the last time we went home between services). At the end of this month, we will be headed to Illinois and will be traveling in the Midwest for about two months. Please continue to uplift us in your prayers as we endeavor to serve the Lord.

Parana

I am grateful for my in-laws, the Ellison's (Hannah's Parents). One of the many things that I have learned from them is their passion for missions. On their kitchen table, they have a box full of missionary prayer cards and before every meal, they would grab a card and pray for a different missionary. My wife and I have adopted that practice as well and try to pray for a different missionary at every meal. These missionaries, evangelists and preachers need prayer just like we do. We want to continue praying for those that are laboring and that God would send even more laborers into His field. Jesus said, "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few;"

This time we think of the city of Parana, Entre Rios. The city of Parana is located in the Central Eastern Argentina on the banks of the Parana River with a metro population of 300,000 souls. It is the capital of the province of Entre Rios. The city has 254 different neighborhoods, and yet not one clear Gospel witness. People are hoping to get to Heaven by their good works. They need to trust in the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. Would you join us in prayer for the people of Parana, Argentina? Would you pray for more laborers to minister and spread the Gospel around the world?

The gospel is beautifully good news, and both beauty and good news are a joy to share, especially in a broken, bad news world!
