Dear Pastor & Wonderful Praying Friends,

In Acts 8:30-31, The Evangelist Philip asked a lost man if he understood what he read. The man replied, "How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him." There are millions of souls, just like the Ethiopian Eunuch who are asking "How can I, except some man should guide me?" Around the corner and around the world, a soul needs Jesus! Let's be faithful in preaching Christ.

Praise

A church in Texas had heard about us, but we hadn't gone to present officially, yet they took us on for support anyway. We give God the glory for that. The Lord certainly is working in ways we can't imagine. We have heard from new supporters in Michigan, Illinois, South Carolina and Georgia. We thank you for your sacrifice and commitment to the Lord and His work. We are very grateful for your partnership in prayers and finances as we get ready to head down to Argentina. We are so thankful for the dozens of people who have written us notes, sent us emails and said kind words of encouragement after the miscarriage. The Lord has used this to strengthen us.

During the early part of June, we had our Departure Interview with our mission board, Macedonia Baptist Missions in Braselton, GA. We are grateful for a sending church and a mission board that labor intensively in helping us and others get to the field.

Paperwork

It has been a long process working with the Argentine consulate in Atlanta. They require all documents to be accompanied with an apostille or an authentication from the respective government institution. We have been mailing marriage license, birth certificates, and police reports to varying agencies. We are hoping we can get the document needed before we head to the field. If not, we will have to leave Argentina every 90 days to get our passport stamped. It has been a slow process, but we're praying we can have all that we need to arrange an appointment with the Argentine Consulate in Atlanta. Please pray that we would not have any more delays with the paperwork.

We thank those who have donated to our Setup Fund! We are amazed of the generosity of God's people. Thank you for helping us get to Argentina.
