

Dec. 17, 2013

On Friday November 11th, 2013 Super Typhoon Haiyan made landfall in the Eastern Visayas of Leyte. As the storm plowed across the cluster of islands in the heart of the country, heavy casualties along with mass destruction was seen by many through CNN and other news agency.

A worldwide relief effort began immediately and is still ongoing. The typhoon is called Yolanda in the Philippines. The effects of Typhoon Yolanda are listed!!!

-The Philippine Star Reports-

Casualties – 5,240; Injured – 25,615; Missing – 1,613; Affected – 9.8 million
Number of Displaced Individuals – 659,268

Please keep the Philippines in your prayers as we approach this Christmas and New Year. Thank you once again for your love, prayers and support.

The Stikeleathers

Larry/Diane Stikeleather
Isa 58:8-12