

Serving U.S. Military Families in Japan

The McKittrick Family

ENJOY TIMES

Vol. 14 Mar – Apr 2015

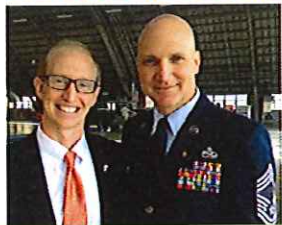

The cherry blossoms were projected to come a week early this year so we planned a picnic at a nearby park to see the blossoms. We also took advantage of the opportunity and passed out hundreds of Japanese gospel tracts to the park attendees. While we were there, we met an American family and invited them to church. They came the next day and have visited a few more times. We visited them this past Tuesday and they are planning to come on Sunday. He is coming up on his six-year mark in the USAF and comes from a Lutheran background. His wife is from a Methodist background. In the military ministry, we meet folks from all walks of life with all thoughts about Christianity. Please pray for the power of God and the wisdom of God on our ministry.

We baptized four people over the last two months. Bryce is a 7-year-old girl whose mom and dad have just been assigned to Yokota and have gotten involved here at the church. Thank you for having a part in providing the opportunity for a little girl to follow the Lord in believer's baptism. Because you give she can be baptized.

I also baptized Megumi and Nanami, a Japanese mother and daughter. Then last Sunday I baptized Hisako, another Japanese lady. Please pray for their spiritual growth. It is a big deal for Japanese people to be baptized. It is a statement to their families and their culture.

My boys got an opportunity to attend a retirement ceremony of a U.S. Air Force Chief Master Sergeant. It was very cool. The Chief had spent 30 years in the United States Air Force and had his retirement ceremony in an airplane hangar just beside the flight line. Our boys got to see some planes and even sit in the cockpit of a C-130. Needless to say they were super excited.

Thank you for your prayers and support as we partner together to reach those in uniform, their families and the local Japanese. Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
