Dear Ministry Friends,

Hello from East Tennessee! This past year has been a whirlwind of emotions and events, but I am so glad to report that God is still on the throne and that His grace is sufficient even in the deepest valley of life! Never in my life have the words in 2 Corinthians 12:9 been so real to me. "My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness."

Several years ago, Jerry and I had the privilege of going to the Holy Land and about a year and a half ago we decided that we wanted to go back again. We began to plan a trip and we were so excited. God had other plans! In March, I was able to take that trip with a group from our church. It was bittersweet to be there without Jerry, but God's grace was sufficient once again!

Since Jerry's passing, my job has not changed! I have not been able to travel as much as before, but I am still in the office every day working alongside our new director, Adam Crabtree, to make sure that each one of our missionaries have the things that they need so that they can continue to do the work that God has called them to do. I love the ministry that God has given to me and feel very privileged that God has allowed me to continue to do it. I want to thank those of you that have continued to financially support me as I continue the ministry that God gave to us many years ago!

The one thing that I have missed the most since Jerry's home going is not being able to travel to all of our churches and see you all! I hope to be able to visit each of you again as the opportunities arise. I also plan to take trips to visit missionaries as those opportunities arise as well! In the meantime, I will keep you all in my prayers and I hope that you will do the same for me!

May God bless you all,
