Dear Prayer Warriors

I just finished reading these words of commentary on II Thessalonians 3:1-2 where Paul said, "Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith."

Commentary: We never arrive at the place in our Christian life and ministry where we no longer need people to pray for us, just as we never arrive at a degree of holiness where we can no longer be tempted. Paul not only felt his need for prayer warriors to help pin down the enemy and soften hearts and open doors but also wanted to give his converts an opportunity to share thus in his ministry. Prayer can place us in a village in Africa or in a hut on the Amazon..."

I'm sorry that I am not at liberty to give details and must leave it as an unspoken request but we are facing an immense challenge and trial in our ministry at the moment.

Please pray that God will give us great wisdom, a spirit of grace, and that truth will prevail.

Together in the harvest,

Bro. Mike and Cindy Haley
