Dearest Friends, Family, and Prayer Warriors,

Cindy and I are overwhelmed and incredibly encouraged by the number of emails we have received from you to let us know that you are praying for us in a difficult situation we are facing. More than ever in my lifetime I believe that prayer is the moving force of modern missions and that success in the work of God anywhere is the result of the prayers of God's people. And most of the time that prayer warrior is the "unsung hero" of it all. At least until we get to Heaven - Amen?!!

Several have asked for an update. Please continue to pray. We are not out of the woods yet but God has given us peace that the truth and what is right will prevail and we are trusting Him for an outcome that is according to His will and wisdom and not our own.

Again, for sake of integrity I must leave the details as unspoken but can share that what is at stake is our opportunity to remain in the country and continue the work. We are now on a "ticking clock" where time is of the essence. Satan has his ways of trying to undermine the work of God and destroy the credibility of God's servants. That's nothing new. But it's always difficult when its your turn to be the one in the crosshairs. I'm reminded of Hamaan and Mordecai in the book of Esther. We know from your emails that many of you are facing similar situations. Please know that each morning as I pray for our own need I am also praying for you - mindful of I Peter 5:9:

"Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world."

Please pray specifically for the following:

1. The issuance of the certificate from the government verifying that we have established, on our own merit, a Missions ministry that is officially recognized by the government. This is called an Association.
2. That we will have wisdom, a gracious demeanor, and a patient spirit as we wait on the Lord and work through the challenges we're faced with.

We love and appreciate you all. As always, it is a great honor to partner with you in the work of the Gospel. Even in the midst of these challenges, souls are being saved, Christians are being discipled and grounded in the Word, miraculous doors of opportunity are being opened and the Word of God is not bound!!! Hallelujah, we're on the winning side!

Thank you for praying.
