

Parrys ministering to Hispanics

November/December 2017

Dear fellow-laborers in the Gospel,

As Thanksgiving and Christmas approach, our hearts are truly filled with praise to our Great God for Who He is, for saving our souls, for calling us to serve Him, for our family, for the churches and individuals who co-labor with us through prayer and giving and for all of His bountiful blessings, Ephesians 1:3; 1 Peter 1:3-9, et. al! Every Christmas our thoughts are again upon the “UNSPEAKABLE GIFT” of His Precious Son, 2 Cor. 9:15! What a wonderful salvation we have to enjoy and to share with those who are yet lost in sin.

The Lord continues to open doors to us in our ministry to Hispanics. We attended a full day conference for Spanish ministry on Oct. 6, which was a help and encouragement to us. We also were given the privilege to speak in a Spanish class in a Christian school to give guidelines for effectively learning Spanish. We do continue our weekly Spanish classes with our granddaughter. Frank will be filling in for the pastor of a local independent Baptist Church from November 26 through December 3.

The Lord has done some exciting things in our outreach ministry. We met Ana Ortega at a garage sale. This was an exciting Divine appointment. Ana is saved, but needs our prayers for encouragement and growth. We have had numerous Bible studies with her; she brought Cecilia, a lady friend from work, to one study and is witnessing to another friend; her mother who was visiting from Mexico attended a study; and we have had the privilege of talking to her unsaved brother about the Lord. We recently met Jose Hernandez (a friend of Viri), and he has attended one Bible study. Most recently we were told about Juan Carlos and have spoken to him by phone and plan to visit his family. We don't have the space to share all of the contacts, but they are many. Our Bible studies with Viri continue and we are encouraged by her progress. Her children Yemily and Auriel continue in our church's King's Kids ministry. Our Bible Study with Martha is still on hold. Please pray that it will resume. We were recently privileged to give an update on our ministry and preach in a supporting church in PA. Meeting with a combined children/youth S.S. was a special blessing!

Your prayers for us are so vital! We are beginning to look for a building that would serve as a future meeting place for a bi-lingual church. Services would be in Spanish, but we would need to have instruction in English for the children. This is no small request, but “the effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.” James 5:16. If that is His will, our prayers together will bring it to pass!

In addition to the highlighted requests above, please pray for the salvation of souls, our correspondence course ministry, revival, strength and wisdom in our lives, and open doors.

Praise: We are happy great-grandparents of Josiah Ephraim Roman, born to Joshua and Logan Roman on September 17.

We pray that your Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year will abound with His blessings!

In His Love and Grace,

Frank and Lorraine Parry
