FIVE SOULS SAVED IN RECENT WEEKS!

Cindy and I were out of country recently to celebrate our 28th wedding anniversary. At breakfast each morning Enielle served us and after a few days of "close" conversation she asked if we could meet her after work. She wanted me to hear her confession. We made an appointment to visit her and her family at their home. At her home we began by explaining that Christ is the only mediator between God and man and after two hours of presenting the true gospel – PRAISE GOD – she tearfully and joyously received Christ as her Saviour! Her daughter was not yet willing and the rest of her family did not know English but Enielle reassured me that she would use the Bible I left with her to explain it all to them.

Warren is a 16-year-old young man and nephew to Ms. Tjada, one of our national missionaries. He was doing some yard work at the house recently to earn a few bucks and as I passed by hurriedly on my way to an appointment and he said, "I would like to talk to you soon." That Wednesday night after church we had a burger together but he was so somber and quiet. I said, "Warren, what is it my man." He said, "I really don't think I'm saved but I have to be!" So once again we opened up the Scriptures and Warren received Christ!

Dallas and Innes are one of the most faithful couples in our church and were recently baptized. I had heard Innes' testimony of how she was saved in high school as a young woman and she showed every evidence of being truly born again. But a few weeks ago, on a Sunday morning, God arrested my attention and burdened me with one of the strongest salvation messages I've ever preached (Pastor's you know what I mean). Staring into the mirror, tying my tie and praying for some folks that Sunday morning, the Spirit of God whispered in my heart and said, "Innes is not saved." I almost dismissed it as Innes is so faithful. Yet that morning, as I preached, a powerful move of the Holy Spirit was at work and as soon as I gave the invitation, sure enough, Innes looked right at me, shot her hand in the air that she needed to be saved, and right after church she went to Cindy and "got er done!" Glory to God!

Every Saturday we go to the village of Mmopane and conduct Kids Bible Club. Recently, Theophilus, a 12 year old boy, sat glued as Cindy, again prompted by the Holy Spirit, felt led to present the gospel after the Bible story and then give an invitation. Out of the multitude of kids – only Theophilus raised his hand to know more and he too was led to Christ that day.

Tshepo – a dear lady in her mid 30's – visited several weeks ago and hasn't missed a Sunday yet. This past Monday Cindy met with her. Many of our visitors are HEAVILY influenced by the Satanic false prophets / churches(?) that are so prevalent here and we have to be VERY THOROUGH when we present the gospel. God opened Tsepho's eyes and she too joyously received Christ and was so grateful for the truth.

Please pray that these will grow in grace and become faithful and fruitful followers of Christ. Please pray for Peter's salvation. He is the father of one of our men, who just recently came to church and sat with tears in his eyes the whole service. He needs to be saved. Please pray for us as we seek a personal revival in our prayer life and walk with God. Please pray for Cindy. She's had some concerning tightness and pains in her chest. We're hoping it's just the crazy heat, stress, and the need for some exercise and R&R. We've both been slaves to our desks as of late. Please pray for our church family. Great victories are often followed by battles. I'll not elaborate. It's the stuff all of us face as we try to love the Lord and win the lost but THE BATTLE RAGES. THANK YOU FOR LIFTING US UP IN PRAYER.
