Dear Pastor,

As I announced in our last Prayer Letter, early November I returned to Hungary for about three months.

During this time, we have seen four inmates call on the name of the Lord in the Debrecen Prison! Also, on the first Sunday of February, I was filling the pulpit of another missionary in Debrecen and in the afternoon, we had a returning visitor, a High School girl, one of the schoolmates of our sons.

Danny and Mark had been able to talk to her before at the School and invited her to church. She came and Beya led her to the Lord at the end of the service! We praise God because her salvation was a direct answer to prayer! 😊

The Lord gave us a wonderful Christmas time, we were able to host our brother and sister in law Benny and Gabrielle from Michigan! Peace, love and joy crowned the end of the year as we celebrated the birth of our Savior! We were very, very thankful to the Lord!

In February I resumed the travels to continue our deputation ministry! Currently I travel in the US and continue to visit churches and present our ministry! By the good grace of our Lord I am almost completely booked for the spring!

Several of our friends asked us about our present level of support, the Lord has been faithful and according to our estimate we are at 60% of our needed support. Please pray that the Lord would supply us with enough partnering churches so we can finish our Deputation in a timely manner!

In the beginning of March my wife and daughter join me for a few weeks as we visit churches and attend Missionary Advanced Training at the Rock of Ages Main Office!

Thank you for your prayers and faithful support!
